ON THE COVER

The Shahs of Persia, the Caliphs of Arabia, the Maharajahs of India—in fact any of the oriental potentates of the fabled East would feel right at home each February at the Shadow Mountain Club. For this is the time of year when the Arabian Night's Ball sponsored by the Indio Chamber of Commerce transforms the club into a court of opulent splendor on the occasion of the Riverside County Fair and National Date Festival. Jacqueline Cochran, famed flyer, rancher, manufacturer, author, and now candidate for Congress, here presents the Queen Scheherazade crown to lovely Jeaniene Cook of Hemet who will reign as "fairest of the fair" for the coming year.

"Hospitality House" to be Previewed

Some 25 nationally known manufacturers of building materials and home appliances will "show-case" their newest products at a Press Preview Party on April 4 in the much talked about Stanthony Hospitality House located at the entrance to the Shadow Mountain Club. The house is scheduled for completion by April 1.

Special invitations are being extended to representatives of leading trade and shelter magazines, plus local newspapers for a private showing of what has been hailed as a refreshing new concept of indoor-outdoor living in the contemporary manner.

The host, Stanthony Corporation, has chartered an 80 passenger TWA Constellation to fly the Press from Los Angeles to Palm Springs and they have taken out a 3 million dollar insurance policy on the group. At Palm Springs, they will be met by a cavalcade of Cadillacs, driven by members of the Palm Desert Women's Club, and chauffeured to the Hospitality House.

Refreshments will be served at the Hospitality House and a special luncheon will be served in the spacious dining room of the Shadow Mountain Club. Late in the afternoon, the group will return to Los Angeles in the same plane.

The Stanthony Hospitality House was designed by Wm. M. Bray, AIA of Los Angeles, and constructed by Roberts Construction Company, of Palm Desert. Interior Decorations and furnishings are being coordinated by Carleton House of Beverly Hills, California.

Purposefully planned for informal entertaining of builders and architects during the coming years, this 3 bedroom, 3½ bath modern home has 2400 square feet under roof with a large, colorful patio and sheltered terrace. Outdoor life will gravitate around the handsome free-form swimming pool and open fireplace in the patio.

Inside, guests will find many innovations designed to make the home more convenient and easier to maintain. The kitchen, for example, contains every accoutrement of modern day living with both gas and electric cooking units as well as a built-in barbecue. It also includes one of the first electronic ovens in Southern California—the scientific wonder that cooks with microwave energy.

New colorful plumbing fixtures, attractive tile, infrared bathroom heaters that give heat instantly at the flick of a switch, make each bathroom an outstanding attraction. Spacious sliding glass doors, wall safes in each bedroom, and a built-in vacuum cleaning system are just a few of the outstanding features in this beautiful home.

A new type of siding material that is impervious to almost everything and will not crack, warp, or chip, assures complete utility of the air-conditioning and heating units in the home.

The exclusive and only public showing of this dream home is set for April 6, 7, and 8 under the sponsorship of the Palm Desert Women's Club who will donate the proceeds from the Friday, Saturday and Sunday opening to the Cancer Fund.

REAL ESTATE ACTIVITY BRISK

We don't know whether it was the coming of spring in the desert, the warm weather, the smoggy cities or what, but it seems that the past few weeks have witnessed quite a surge in the sale of lots in Shadow Mountain Park Estates.

Recent purchasers included Thos. D. Isabella of Canoga Park, Jerome W. Forney of Whittier, and Frank Casales, Howard G. McAloney, and Alan D. Herrington of Los Angeles. All have indicated plans for early construction of homes here in the garden spot of the desert.

The fabulous "Hospitality House," object of nationwide publicity because of its many modern innovations will be completed shortly and opened to a three day public showing April 6, 7, 8, under the auspices of the Palm Desert Women's Club who will donate admission fees to the Cancer Fund. This showing will be preceded on April 4 by a press pre-view. This in itself will be quite a fabulous affair. More than eighty members of press, television, and radio will be flown by chartered TWA Constellation to the Palm Springs airport whence they will be whisked through the resort city in a sight-seeing caravan of automobiles thence to Shadow Mountain Club and the "Hospitality House" for a press party. Luncheon at Shadow Mountain Club will follow.

In a recent conversation with Carl Henderson, Chairman of the Real Estate Committee, some rather interesting facts were brought forth. Since the first offering of lots for sale in Shadow Mountain Park a little over a year ago more than fifty out of a total of seventy-five have been sold to date. Seven new residences have been completed, three are under construction and several more set to start in the near future. Quite an impressive showing we think.

DIXIE BALL—APRIL 13

Chairman Al Willard is beating the drums fast and furiously these days for the big spring "Dixie Ball" set for Friday night, April 13. We'll go along with Al on this one. Springtime and the most beautiful spot in the desert transformed into the "Deep South" with the scent of magnolia and bougainvillea plus the perfume of the orange and grapefruit blossoms all combining to create a setting suitable for the finest of fun parties.

Minstrel Show, cake walk, and Dixieland jazz they'll all be on parade and Allen even promises that Nelson McIninch, nationally famed farm reporter from KNX will positively sing two or three verses of Ol' Man River.

So what are you waiting for—Call, write, or wire for your reservation now—"You all." "We'll have youah Mint Juleps ready and waitin', Suh."

CORONATION NIGHT FINALE APRIL 2

Coronation Night, the Monday night fun party that has set an all-time popularity high at Shadow Mountain Club, rings down the curtain on its 1956 season on April 2.

Sun Spots wishes to take this opportunity to join with all the club members and guests who have realized so much pure fun and entertainment out of the affair to cast a big vote of thanks to the committee that has worked long and untiringly to assure its success. Orchids to chairman Hazel Sergeant, and to her co-workers, Gretchen Cheeseman, Ella Lu Kapp, Bobby Reichert, Mrs. Cal Brown, and Veloma Waldron. Girls, you've done a terrific job and we're proud of you. So proud and pleased that we're already looking that long, long way ahead to next year and your promise of a bigger and better, Coronation Night, 1957 model.

All time Shadow Mountain Club favorites, Art and Dottie Todd. Their incomparable renditions of popular music, both old and new, has attracted dinner dance enthusiasts in greater numbers than ever before.

VISITING ROTARIANS NUMEROUS AT S.M.C.

Visiting Rotarians and guests in great numbers have been attending the Friday noon luncheon meeting of the Palm Desert Rotary club according to President Jerry Malone. On a recent Friday Jerry reported guests from such far-away spots as Alaska, Alberta, Canada, Minneapolis and Maine. Attendance on Feb. 17 reached a high mark of 135 as Wayne Fisher, Director of the Riverside County Fair, spoke on the outstanding features of this year's presentation.

At a recent election Dr. James Ketchersid was named president for the year beginning July 1, Milton Page as Vice-President, Hal Kapp as Secretary and Mike Munier, Treasurer were the other officers elected by the board for the coming year.

Who! When! Where!

By GRETCHEN

The month of March rolled in our desert like the veritable lamb, bringing warm sunshine, balmy evenings and flowers everywhere. What a sight, those carpets of yellow daisies, like velvet laid over the sand. The waning moon seemed reluctant to be on her way! Men and women who love pure, clear air—who are alive and happy in the sun almost willing to give up wealth, fame, trinkets and jewels in exchange for the riches of the morning sun as it spills out of the east and over the desert—and the purple evenings and star-studded nights. Such are the sights on the desert now!

At Shadow Mountain Club, one also has Kings, Queens, and Princesses with glittering crowns, gifts in gorgeous wrappings—gold shoulder mantles, musical fanfare—in fact, all the royal “trappings” one could wish for—“Coronation” night! Come to the Club any Monday evening and who knows but what the winning number will be yours, your desert vacation will be topped by an experience you will never forget. Whether you enter the portals of Shadow Mountain Club in the morning, afternoon or evening, you will know and feels that it is the center of sparkling entertainment, delicious food and excellent service. A place where friendships are made that will last forever, even though your “home” interests take you far away.

The great Pacific Northwest has been generously represented in the desert this year—in fact, one could say that Palm Desert and Shadow Mountain Club really have been a “mecca” for these folk. On two evening occasions, the Todds asked our northern friends to rise and half of the great Shadow Room arose! The Pat Ritchies of “Desert Patch” brought a gay crowd of Vancouverites to a “Coronation.” They included Mr. and Mrs. Charles Riley, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Bertram Nesbitt, the Stewart Beggs, S. J. McClays, William Keates, Jr., and the Doug McCrimmons. Seen on other occasions and from the same city were the Keith Westons, Leon Ladners, Thomas Milners and Dunc Hamiltons.

The State of Washington has been well represented here this winter by Seattle and Tacoma residents. Tacoma

Perennial movie great Richard Arlen, left, and Mrs. Arlen in the television lounge with Jack Mann on a recent visit to the club. In case you may not remember, Dick Arlen won the very first Academy Award Oscar for his performance in the memorable “Wings,” and is now set to appear in a Palm Springs Playhouse production of “The Tender Trap.”

visitors to the Club were Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Maxwell and family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wolfe and Mr. and Mrs. Audrey Jorgenson—also His Honor, H. C. Domstad, mayor of Bremmerton—Mrs. James H. O’Reilly, who lived many years in Tacoma had a Sunday “Brunch” group all from the old Home Town! From Seattle were the G. W. Smiths, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Braekel, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Beardsley and Dr. and Mrs. Crawford Warren—now south a bit to the state of Oregon and see who we can see—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fox, Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Ohling, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hugh, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Burlingham and Mr. and Mrs. Ira Fitts!

February 20 Coronation Night featured a Tahitian Theme, starring the lovely islander, Tani Marsh. From left, John Anderson, Rancho Mirage, Mrs. Esther Phillips, Palm Desert, Tani, Fannie Pruitt, Palm Springs "Queen for the Night," and "Prince" Ray Purdy of Modesto.

"Coronation" nights have moved along at a fast pace. Every Monday, more and more guests—a highly entertaining and "different" floor show, until now the huge Shadow Room is packed. This festive occasion is the "talk of the desert." On two Monday evenings, a King and a Prince were added—after all, the men must come into their own once in a while! Feb. 13, found a crown on the heads of Mrs. Julia Kuhn of Long Beach and Dr. Hayes of Indio. The Princess and Prince were Mildred Scott of Indio and Dr. A. Bryant of Rosebert, Oregon. Feb. 20, the royal crowns went to Mrs. Sammy Pruitt of Palm Springs and Mrs. Raymond Purdy of Modesto—Princess and Prince, Mrs. Esther Phillips of Palm Desert and Mr. John Anderson of Rancho Mirage—at this point, may we say that the "who" that makes coronation such a success is Hazel Sergeant. "When" does she do all of this, almost every hour of the day and night—"Where" does she get the wonderful talent—by asking, writing or phoning all the popular artists that are on the desert—not only a gardenia but the "solid gold cadillac" goes to this popular member of Shadow Mountain Club!

Many new members have been added to the Club roster this last month. Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Geldermann of La Quinta and Danville, Cal., Mr. and Mrs. Sanford E. Eades of Pacific Palisades, Dr. and Mrs. Charles L. Kaufman of Forest Grove, Oregon, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Harding, Jr., of Palm Desert, Mr. and Mrs. Roy V. Kessler, of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Janss of Palm Desert, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Kettenbach of Calgary, Canada, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Dyar of Palm Desert, Mr. Thomas Hamilton of Los Angeles, Dr. and Mrs. Crawford Warren, retired dentist of Seattle, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Duran K. Arakelian of Indio, Mr. and Mrs. Palmer A. Powell of Indio and Mr. and Mrs. William A. Bibee of Palm Desert. A big welcome for all the new members will be awaiting them as they come through the magic gate of Shadow Mountain Club. Some are "new faces from far away places" and many are like the famous bluebird found in our "own back yard"—faces from Indio and Palm Desert! Near or far, strange or familiar, the Shadow Mountain Club "family" want you to have fun and be happy here.

Major Slater hosts a party at the March 12 Sage and Sun sponsored Coronation Night. Clockwise: Hank Cheese-man, Gretchen Cheese-man, Major Slater, Mrs. Slater, Norma and Herb Shaw, Mary and Ralph Caplinger.

Parties and then more parties. The Tahitian party in conjunction with Coronation was sponsored by Sun and Shadow and Gates Lodge. It was authentic "South Seas" from decorations down to the last Bongo drum beat! Otto and Audrey Allgoewer, talented Club members were stars of the show, assisted by Alfred Lebin in Mad Tahitian dances with music by the Polynesian Trio. The Shadow Room was a palm grove with monkeys of every color hanging from the trees—even jeweled eyes and necklaces—costumes were worn by many of the guests adding to the general fun and gaiety of one of the outstanding parties of the season.

A new party inaugurated Thursday, Feb. 9, was such a success, it will be a monthly affair. A group of the young married couples started with a no-host dinner and under the guiding hand of Lou Kuehner, Shadow Mountain Club's new Program Director, dancing, games, etc., made it outstanding. This is a "get acquainted" idea—and it proved to be just that—come to the club the first Thursday of every month and see how easy it is to make friends and have fun!

The Aladdin Ball, Friday evening, Feb 10 was a beautiful and fitting occasion in which to crown the queen of the Annual Date Festival. Costumes in the Arab fashion were really beautiful and the decor was carried out in Arabic fashion—miniature date palms on every table—and of course, baskets of the dates, the world's finest, everywhere—this was the 8th Annual Arabian Ball—over four hundred guests attended and a wonderful program was spontaneously presented by talented members of the party!

The Sunday "Brunch" on the Terrace is a very popular "get together" at Shadow Mountain Club. There is a sense of informality and friendliness—a time for new members to make friends—and old members to see that this is done. The last few Sundays we have seen the Pickerings, Kapps, Dr. Minnie Burden, Mrs. Dorothy Thompson, Edna Value, the Nolen Allens with New York guests, Mr. and Mrs. William Rearden, the Yahns, Bob Hansons, Crandalls, O'Reilleys, Rowses, Isabelle Belyea, Bill Brooks, Don Carnes, Fred Johnson, George Moores, the Saegers with their Chicago guests, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Blacktin.

Another four weeks have become history again at Shadow Mountain Club—and what wonderful history. The weather has been beautiful, in fact perfect—warm days and cool evenings—a time to wear shorts on the golf course and your glamorous furs at night. It all sounds like a fairy tale—but it is the truth. Come to the desert and see for yourself. Better than that, come to Palm Desert and best of all come to Shadow Mountain Club.

Pro Bobby Pinnell reports that play on the newly lengthened pitch and putt course has reached a new high with more and more club members and friends taking up the hook and slice pastime. . . . WOMEN'S INVITATIONAL—Top golf event for the feminine devotees of the sport attracted an unusually large number of entries from other clubs in the area. . . . Scheduled for Feb. 15 and 16 second day's play was postponed until the 20th due to inclement weather. . . . SMC's own Helen Sumpter with a gross 124 for the 36 holes captured the huge June Goodwin Trophy with Wilma Swancott and Viola Mitchell of Del Rio C.C., Brawley, taking over second and third spots. Theda Bradley of SMC was fourth. Other winners in the long list of prizes included Harriett Kettenbaugh, Dorothy Pierson, Maud Donovan, Betty Ives, Belle Keightley and Lorraine Valet of S.M.C. In the money also were visitors Kathryn Knight of Del Rio, Mrs. W. E. Thompson, San Gabriel, W. R. Walters of Cochran Ranch and Jeanne Boling of O'Donnell. . . . A Punch Bowl Party in the new Women's Club House followed the awarding of the trophies. . . . Finals in the MEN'S CLUB CHAMPIONSHIP were scheduled for March 18—winners not available at press time but Don Hunter, 52, George Moore, 53, and Al Kettenbach, 54, were low net leaders going into the last day of play. . . . PUTTING PATIO regularly attracting a large group on Sunday afternoons. . . . Gil Cornelius latest winner of the men's division with Jeanne Damerel again copping honors among the ladies. . . . After the competition great fun with a group of seven or eight engaging in a horse-race putting competition. . . . Farthest from the hole drops out each time until a winner is determined. . . . ## Kuehner's Korner

The Tots, Teens and Post-Teens of Shadow Mountain Club
By LOU KUEHNER

Lou Kuehner

Easter is the big, big word here at the Shadow Mountain Club, for Easter is synonymous with fun. Everyone is looking forward to that merry week when you can't see the Club grounds for all the people. Activities planned this year promise to be more popular than ever before.

We'd like to encourage the young adults (high school and college) particularly, to attend the many activities scheduled. Tuesday evening, March 27, an informal dance is planned so that everyone can get acquainted. Feel free to wear casual sportswear to this dance. Also, don't forget the Ping Pong Tournament, Volley Ball Tournament, Water Carnival, Dinner Dance and Cina-Swim Party. By the way, we hope people don't hesitate coming to club functions unescorted. We've checked with Emily (Post, that is) and she says it's perfectly proper. Besides, we always have no-host tables so that unescorted folks can meet other people.

LIFE-SAVING CLASS

A Red Cross Life-Saving Class has begun for all boys and girls who are between the ages of 12 and 15. In addition to the age requirement, there are some other simple pre-requisites before taking the training course. Betty Crockett, who is our new swim instructor and an official Red Cross Water Safety Instructor, will conduct this course. Time is 10:00 a.m. every Saturday morning.

SYNCHRONIZED SWMMING

Now's the time to see Betty concerning the 3rd Annual SMC Water Show. Already a group of gals is rehearsing every Monday afternoon at 4:30 p.m. Let's get all the guys and gals up and start on our usual terrific water show.

JUDO CLASS

Another new activity. This time it's a Judo Class for boys 12 years and over. There's no charge for the instruction (which by the way is by Milt Page) but steady and serious attendance is required. That's Saturday morning at 9:00 a.m.

EASTER SUNRISE SERVICES

For the third successive year Shadow Mountain Club grounds forms the setting for Palm Desert's traditional Sunrise Easter Services on April 1 under the direction of the Palm Desert Community Church.

Dr. P. Martin Baker, P.D. Community Church pastor will preside, Dr. Graham Hunter of Cathedral City will give the invocation and Dr. Denton Gerow will be the principal speaker. Dr. Gerow formerly was Minister of the Calvary Church in Riverside and at present is Secretary of the Southern California Foundation.

Worship center will be the movie screen platform and the Palm Springs Civic Chorus will provide the Choral music under the direction of Harry Tomlinson.

Services will start at 5:50 a.m. Buffet breakfast will be served in the main dining room following completion of the worship.

NEW SLIM & TRIM CLASS

It's not too late to join that energetic groups called the Slim and Trim Class. A new session has just begun which will run until May 1. Join the fun!

WHAT'S IN THE WIND?

We're not sure, but there's talk that the following events are going to be taking place sometime soon:

- Children's Water Show
- A.A.U. Jr. Swim Meet
- Square Dance Night for Adults
- Over night Hike for kids
- Chuckwagon Party for Adults

Howard Fowler

KNOW YOUR STAFF

Chef Howard Fowler whose culinary wizardry has elicited countless praises from members and guests at Shadow Mountain for the past year began his career in the expert preparation of food by taking a training course as an efficiency expert in hotel and restaurant operations.

Becoming thoroughly engrossed and interested in the cooking end of the business Howard joined the world famous Fred Harvey chain at their Grand Canyon restaurant where he worked until World War II and the Navy called him for four years' service.

After the war followed a tour of western resort areas including Yosemite National Park where he occupied first cook and chef positions.

Chef Fowler came to Shadow Mountain Club as first cook during the 1954-55 season and was promoted to Chef in the fall of 1955. He is a smiling and happy individual and in contrast to the temperamental state of mind that has often been associated with top flight chefs, is mild mannered and extremely popular with his staff and other employees of the Club.

So the next time that steak or prime rib tickles your palate and you feel in a complimentary mood tell your waiter to pass on the word to Howard. He'll certainly appreciate it.

CALIFORNIA C. OF C. LAUDS DESERT GROWTH

We present in its entirety a quotation from a recent article by the California Chamber of Commerce pointing out so beautifully the fabulous growth and future of desert living.

"A new breed of 'Desert Rat' has sprung up. These are the doctors, lawyers, dentists, butchers, bankers, clerks, merchants, and people from all walks of life. For the love of the desert is not confined to any one group or kind of people. With them they have brought all of the innovations for gracious living — the finest in desert home construction, embodying all modern conveniences — air conditioning, refrigeration, swimming pools, and all that goes with it. Whole new communities have sprung up rapidly, some so new that even the latest of our maps do not indicate their location. Land which sold twenty years ago for nominal sums is now commanding fabulous prices for subdivision for costly residences. Truly, the sands of the desert have become golden."

The quiet beauty of the desert...

Rancho Mirage, an exclusive community of fine homes and shops, stands in the very heart of America's desert playground—yet boasts the seclusion and prestige which its members require. The handsome Swimming Club (for members only) at Rancho Mirage reflects all the dignity of the community and at the same time offers the epitome of pleasure for its sports-minded members. Fabulous entertainment centers and winter and summer sports are found at a discreet distance by those who have made Rancho Mirage their permanent or weekend residence.

Controlled development has made a select number of homes available at Rancho Mirage. These homes range from $15,500 to $26,950. You may see a furnished model by contacting a representative at the Rancho Mirage Office at 71-811 Highway 111 across from the Post Office and between Thunderbird Golf Club and Shadow Mountain Club. Private planes may land on the strip at the edge of the community.

Rancho Mirage, an A. Ronald Button development, means Gracious Living with an additional hour of sunshine.
